LANDSCAPE MASTER PLAN

The Planning Office is happy to announce that the firm of Kiley, Tyndall and Walker has been selected to produce a Campus Landscape/Parking Master Plan and a contract has been successfully negotiated. They will be working on a long range plan for the campus as well as interim parking plans for the period during construction activities. Their long range plans will include the beautification of the historic district, the mall and the areas around the new buildings. This master plan will serve to physically unify the campus and create more pleasant places for activities, socializing, and relaxing.

PL 94-142

The Gallaudet Library has copies of the PL 94-142 Resource Manual which was developed by the Gallaudet PL 94-142 Task Force to be used as a reference.

HOW TO INVEST YOUR MONEY

A three session Investment Seminar has been arranged by the Center for Continuing Education. The program, which will be interpreted for deaf people, will be held on Tuesdays, November 15, 22, and 29, from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the office of a leading Washington stock brokerage firm, Ferris & Company, Inc. The firm is located at 1720 Eye Street N.W. The seminar will be conducted by Lyman Harbottle, a registered representative of Ferris and a specialist in money management together with a sign language interpreter.

There is no charge. To register call Continuing Education, ext. 575.

ROOMMATE NEEDED...

to share a three bedroom house in Arlington, Virginia, with a deaf, middle aged male who signs. The rent would be $100 per month. Please respond by voice to Pat Jackson, 635-2139 or TTY, 447-0523.

REMINDER

All staff and faculty should remember that the deadline for submission of registration forms for "Staff Development Programs" is October 26, 1977.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON WITH FRIENDS AT BAUER DRIVE

The Montgomery County Department of Recreation invites all handicapped persons to attend the Opening and Dedication of the new Bauer Drive Recreation Center, which is located in Rockville, Md. These Sunday programs are offered on a drop-in basis for all handicapped persons. It is planned to be a multi-activity program, and will serve all age groups, youth, teens and adults. Programs will meet every Sunday from 2-4 p.m. beginning October 23, 1977. The fee will be $1.00 each week.

For more specific information about this program contact Billie Wilson, 468-4168, voice only.

JESSICA TARAHATA HAGEDORN, POET

A poetry reading by Jessica Tarahata Hagedorn will be presented by the Library for the Arts/Language and Literature Division, D.C. Public Library. The reading, first in the Poets in Person series, will take place at the Martin Luther King Memorial Library in Room A-5 on Thursday, November 10, at 7:30 p.m.

Like all Library events, this reading is open to the public free of charge.

AMONG OURSELVES

--William Kemp, Coordinator of Sign Language
Training and Services, went to Providence, Rhode Island, to conduct a workshop which was sponsored by the R.I. Girls Club for the Deaf. The topic of the workshop was "What is Sign Language?" and "Who is an Interpreter?"
The workshop was held on October 15 at the Providence Club.

--Bill Pugin and Linda Melnick are among the cast of "Little Mary Sunshine" now being performed at the District Heights Theatre of the Arts. The opening night audience included many familiar Gallaudet faces. For ticket information contact either Bill (453) or Linda (892).

--Vic Galloway and Rich Steffan are presently on a Review Panel for a National Science Foundation grant entitled Science Career Development for the Deaf. The project is funded by NSF and is being developed and monitored by Research for Better Schools in Philadelphia. The goal is to develop a science career development packet designed for deaf students.
